

PROTECTIVE COVENANTS

"A home is not a detached unit but a part of a neighborhood, which in turn is part of a town; and the good quality of the borne usually depends at least as much on its surroundings as on its design and construction. Hence the vital importance of ground planning and control of the development of neighborhoods" --Thomas Adams

FOREWORD

Protective covenants, or private deed restrictions, have been found from many years of experience to be an essential instrument in maintaining character and desirability in community development. Years of experience by developers all over the nation has been drawn upon in the preparation of these covenants in an effort to create a residential community in which the individual home owner is not unduly hampered in the use of his property, yet is protected against the haphazard development so familiar in older areas.

Protective covenants are not to be considered as taking the place of public regulations such as zoning. Both types of regulation are essential and are not necessarily overlapping. Zoning by Chatham County provides for certain limited regulations which are considered necessary in the interest of public health, safety and general welfare. The protective covenants in Wilmington Park are contracts between private parties, the owners of the property involved, which give considerably more protection than regulations enforceable by Chatham County.

VIII. MAINTENANCE CHARGES

- A. All the land included and shown on the aforesaid plat of Wilmington Park, whether owned by Wilmington Park or by other, shall be subject to an annual maintenance charge or assessment at the rate as specified in the appropriate Phase and Addition. The said assessment shall be due and payable before June 30th of each year. This charge may be adjusted from year to year by a majority vote of the property owners of lots in said subdivision (each such owner has but one vote regardless of how many lots owned) attending a meeting called by Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., for the purpose of considering a change in said assessment.
- B. All sums payable as above set forth are payable to Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., and the amount so paid shall be administered by the Officers of said association and may be used for the payment of so-called maintenance expense incurred for the following purposes:
 1. For lighting, improving, cleaning, and maintaining the streets and parks, if any, maintained for the general use of owners and occupants of land included in said Subdivision, including all grass and planted areas within the boundaries of such streets and parks;
 2. For the operation and maintenance of any storm-water drains now or hereafter constructed in said tract;

For caring for vacant and untended land, if any, included in said Subdivision on which said Maintenance Charge is being paid, removing the grass and weeds therefrom and doing any other thing necessary or desirable, in the opinion of the officers of the Association, to keep the property neat and in good order, or which in the opinion of the officers of the Association, may be of general benefit to the Owners or Occupants of the land included therein;
 4. For the expenses incident to the examination and approval of plans as herein provided and to the enforcement of the restrictions, conditions, covenants, easements, charges and agreements herein contained;
 5. For taxes and assessments, if any, that may be levied by any public authority upon the Community Club, or any streets, parks or other common areas hereafter opened, laid out or established for the general use of the owners of land included in said Subdivision.

 7. Such other purposes as are set forth in the Charter of said Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc.
- C. The annual charge for maintenance shall be liens or encumbrances on the land and acceptance of each of the several deeds (not including thereby a mortgagee or a lender under a properly recorded Mortgage or Deed to Secure Debt) shall be construed to be a covenant to pay said charges. The Association shall have the right to take and prosecute all actions or suits, legal or otherwise which may in its opinion be necessary for the collection of such charges.
- D. The lien hereby reserved, however, shall be at all times subordinate to the lien of any mortgagee or lender of any sums secured by a properly recorded mortgage or deed to secure debt, to the end and intent that the lien of any mortgagee, trustee, or note holder shall be paramount to the lien for maintenance charges imposed herein, and provided further such subordination shall apply only to the charges that shall become payable prior to the passing of title under foreclosure of mortgage or deed to secure debt or acquisition of the title by deed in lieu of foreclosure with approval of the Federal Housing Commissioner, and nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the rights herein given to enforce the collections of such charges accruing after sale under foreclosure of such mortgage or deed to secure debt.

IX. SIGNS

No signs, or other advertising device of any character shall be erected, posted, pasted, displayed or permitted upon or about any part of said property except one sign of not more than five (5) square feet in area, advertising the property for sale or rent, and signs used by a building to advertise the property during construction and sales period, provided, however, that any such builder's signs shall be subject to approval by the Architectural Committee.

X. SCOPE, DURATION OF COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS, RESERVATIONS, SERVICUTES, AND EASEMENTS

1. All of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements set forth in this Declaration are imposed upon said property for the direct benefit thereof and of the owners thereof as a part of the general plan of development, improvement, building, equipment, and maintenance of said property. Each grantee or purchaser under a contract of sale or agreement of purchase, by accepting a deed or contract of sale or agreement of purchase accepts the same subject to the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements, set forth in this Declaration, and agrees to be bound by each such covenant, restrictions, reservations, servitude and easements. Said covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes, and easements shall run with the land and continue to be in full force and effect until expiration as stated in each Phase and Addition.

Said covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements as are in force on the date of expiration, shall be continued automatically and without further notice from that time for a period of ten (10) years and thereafter for successive periods of ten (10) years each, without limitation, unless within six (6) months prior to the expiration of any successive period of ten (10) years thereafter, a written agreement executed by the then record owners of lots in the property subject to this Declaration, having an aggregate area equivalent to not less than fifty (50) per cent of the area of the total number of lots then subject to this Declaration shall be placed on record in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham County, Georgia, in which agreement any of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements may be changed, modified, waived or extinguished in whole or in part, as to all or any part of the property then subject thereto in the manner and to the extent therein provided.

2. In the event that any such written agreement of change or modification be fully executed and recorded, the original covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements as therein modified shall continue in force for successive periods of ten (10) years each, unless and until further changed, modified or extinguished, in the manner herein provided.
3. Damages are hereby declared not to be adequate compensation for any breach of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes, or easements of this Declaration, but such breach and the continuance thereof may be enjoined, abated and remedied by appropriate proceedings by the Declarant, the Architectural Committee, Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., or by an owner of any lot in said property.

XI. MODIFICATION AND ANNULMENT OF COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS, RESERVATIONS AND SERVICUTES

Any of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements contained in this Declaration, except those set forth in subdivision 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 of Paragraph 11 may be annulled, waived, changed or modified with respect to all or any portion of said property by Declarant, with the written consent of the owner or owners of record of the property to which such annulment, waiver, change or modification shall apply.

XII. SUBORDINATION OF COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS, RESERVATIONS, SERVITUDES AND EASEMENTS

All of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements set forth in this Declaration shall be subject to and subordinate to any recorded mortgage or deed of trust in good faith and for value at any time heretofore or hereafter executed covering any part of said property, and the breach of any such covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements shall not defeat the lien or encumbrance of any such mortgage or deed of trust; provided, however the purchaser at any foreclosure sale under any such mortgage or deed of trust, his or its successors and assigns, shall take and thereafter hold the title subject to all of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements set forth in this declaration.

XIII. VIOLATIONS OF COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS, RESERVATIONS, SERVITUDES AND EASEMENTS

A breach or violation of any of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements shall give to the Declarant, Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., and to the Architectural Committee, jointly and severally, the right to immediate entry upon the property upon which such violation exists, and summarily to abate and remove, at the expense of the owner thereof, any erection, structure, building, thing or condition that may be or exist thereon contrary to this Declaration, and to the true intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Declarant, Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., or the Architectural Committee shall not thereby be deemed guilty of any manner of trespass for such entry, abatement, or removal, nor shall the Declarant, Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., or the Architectural Committee be liable for any damages occasioned thereby. The result of every act of omission or commission, or the violation of any covenant, restriction, reservation, servitude and easement, hereof whether such covenant, restriction, reservation, servitude and easement is violated in whole or in part, is hereby declared to be and to constitute a nuisance, and every remedy allowed by law or equity against a nuisance, either public or private shall be applicable against any such owner of any lot, and may be prohibited and enjoined by injunction. Such remedy shall be deemed cumulative and not exclusive.

Where an action, suit or other judicial proceeding is instituted or brought for the enforcement of these covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes, and easements, the losing party in such litigation shall pay all expense, including a reasonable attorney's fee, incurred by the other party in such legal proceeding.

XIV. RIGHT TO ENFORCE

The provisions contained in this Declaration shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Declarant, Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., the Architectural Committee, or by the owner or owners of any portion of said property, their and each of their legal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, and failure by Declarant, Wilmington Park Homes Association, Inc., the Architectural Committee, or by the owner or owners of any portion of said property or their legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns, to enforce any of such covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements herein contained shall, in no event, be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter, unless otherwise herein provided.

XV. ASSIGNMENT OF POWERS

Any and all rights and powers and reservations of the Declarant herein contained may be deeded, conveyed or assigned to another corporation, co-partnership or individual evidencing its consent in writing to accept such assignment and to assume such duties and powers, it shall, to the extent of such deed, conveyance or assignment, have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same obligations and duties as are given to and assumed by Declarant herein and thereupon Declarant shall be relieved of the performance of any further duty or obligation hereunder to the extent of such deed, conveyance or assignment.

In the event Declarant shall convey all of its right, title and interest in and to the real property described in said plat and shall assign an of its rights, powers and privileges under this Declaration to another corporation, co-partnership or individual and such assignee should, by instrument in writing duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham County, Georgia, accept such conveyance and assume and agree to be bound by each and all of the obligations and duties hereby imposed upon the Declarant, then and in that event Declarant shall be relieved of the performance of any further duty or obligation hereunder and such other corporation, co-partnership or individual shall succeed to all of the rights, powers, reservations, obligations and duties as though such other party had originally been named as Declarant instead of Declarant.

XVI. MARGINAL NOTES AND HEADINGS OF PARAGRAPHS

The marginal notes and headings as to the contents of particular paragraphs are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way are, or are they intended to be, a part or this Declaration, or in any way define, limit or describe the scope of intent of that particular section or paragraph to which they refer.

XVII. THE VARIOUS PARTS OF THIS DECLARATION ARE SEVERABLE

In the event any clause, subdivision, term, provision or part of this Declaration should be adjudicated by final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, then disregarding the paragraph, subdivision, term, provision or part of this Declaration as adjudicated to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Declaration, and each and all of its terms and provisions not so adjudicated to be invalid or unenforceable, shall remain in full force and effect, and each and all of the paragraphs, subdivisions, terms, provisions, or parts of this Declaration are hereby declared to be severable and independent of each other.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF Declarant has caused these presents to be executed by its sole general partner on the day and year first above written as the date hereof.
